

I vehemently protest the use of the public airwaves by Pappas Telecasting Companies for $325,000 worth of free advertising for one political party. This represents a serious abuse of a public trust.

Pappas is legally obliged to serve the public interest. Their blatant partisanship fails to meet that obligation.

Consequently, media ownership rules must be strengthened. The current "license renewal by postcard" system MUST be changed. Sincerely, Mr. Joseph Polselli